"Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin is a reproach to any people" Prov.14.34

Vol.1 No.2

1st June, 1972

Price 5c.

Quoting Paul:

"Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools..
"Wherefore God gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies between themselves:
"Who changed the truth of God into a lie...
"For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:
"Likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another: men with men working that which is unseemly and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was meet."

(Romans 1.22-27)

Quoting

2 Chron. 7.14:

"If My people which are called by My Name, shall humble themselves and pray, and seek My face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land."

THE WAY OF DEATH AND DESTRUCTION

Four thousand years ago, a father (recently widowed) stood with his two surviving daughters, and gazed into the distance at the smoking ruins of their old home town. When he first settled there - against his uncle's advice - it was a thriving city, and its wealth and prosperity set it apart as a fine example of an Affluent Society - though really not the place for anyone who feared God.

It wasn't long before this great city, and those nearby, began to treat modesty as a joke; nudity, obscenities and promiscuity as everyday things that ceased to shock; and many were the sexual perversions and shameful practices indulged in by the sex maniacs in that age of permissive decadence.

True sacrificial love was all but forgotten as lust and homosexuality took over. Indeed the whole community became a notable example of the Effluent Society, characterized by extreme moral pollution.

Then came a rumour of impending judgment from an enraged God of wrath. Oh, what a joke!-- but one evening four people finally decided to heed the warning and hasten out of the city to safety. Actually only three made it because one unfortunately hesitated and looked back, despite good advice to the contrary.

It had all happened so suddenly - within seconds those proud cities of the plain, (including Sodom and Gomorrah), had become an inferno of flames, and were soon only smoking ruins. We can imagine Uncle Abraham sadly saying to nephew Lot:

"There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof are the ways of death." (Proverbs 16.25)

God has recorded His dealings with men and nations in the past for our instruction and guidance. Why will we not learn the lessons of history? We talk of our 'permissive society', but by its very definition there can be no such thing as a society without laws and moral codes. What we have now is what they had in Sodom and Gomorrah - permissive decadence - and we are thereby tempting God to destroy us also.

Our society has become permeated with the utterly godless and stupid concept that everyone has the right to "do his own thing" - whether it be a child throwing a temper tantrum, or a foul-mouthed radical inciting others to riotous or immoral behaviour. Our Western culture was not man-made - it originated with God, the only true Lawgiver, and He commands parents to teach His rules to children for their welfare and protection from themselves. Allow the individual to be a law unto himself, and life becomes chaotic. Alter or adapt laws to suit circumstances, and we have 'situation ethics', which is the godless way of saying that keeping laws is right (unless you disapprove of them); obeying parents is right (unless you disagree with them); lying is wrong (unless you can justify it); stealing is wrong (unless your need is great); fornication, adultery and homosexuality are wrong (unless you are acting responsibly); murder is wrong (unless it is called abortion), etc.

When this country operated under the balanced laws revealed in God's Ten Commandments, we lived in peace and harmony, both with our children and with our fellows. But since the knowledge and teachings of the Bible have been tipped out of schools through a system that pretends that God is dead, the automatic result has been the end of decency, morality and chastity, and the influx of spiritual chaos, lawlessness and wretchedness such as we have not experienced before. When men refuse to be ruled by God, anarchy takes over, and the end is suffering and final destruction.

WITH WHAT PURPOSE?

One aim of STOP PRESS is to encourage people to become active letter-writers, in order to influence those in authority. Regarding radio and T.V., we suggest that you write for relevant Programme Standards booklets from The Australian Broadcasting Control Board, P.O. Box 91, Toowoong, 4066, and then write to them about any programmes which breach the rules and offend you. You could quote the number of the rule contravened in your opinion. Regarding objectionable magazines, sex handbooks, etc., write your complaints to The Queensland Literature Board of Review, Justice Dept., Brisbane. There is a Birth Control Handbook handed out by the Q.I.T. students that parents need to guard against because of its low implications. Protest to the Minister for Customs and to the Prime Minister because the Government failed to ban its entry.

TEXT BOOKS, etc.

Will you please help by supplying the names of any books that you consider unacceptable for your child to read or study? Also please report to us any instances of vulgarity, obscenity, or blasphemy occurring during school lessons. We have already dealt with several such incidents involving teachers and/or students.

We have a battle on our hands - a battle to save children from these academics who are trying to destroy their minds and their morals, their character and their chastity. Many parents are testifying that children are being brainwashed, not educated.

In 1933, Dr. Harold Rugg wrote 'The Great Technology', in which he said that 'through the schools of the world, we shall disseminate a new conception of government.' This is becoming simple to accomplish because our children are now being taught by people we do not know, with moral values that differ from our own, who teach from books which we have not read, about subjects of which we do not approve, while parents continue to deify the schools that teach our minors to question the authority of God, their parents and the Government.

Do let the Minister for Education, Brisbane, know that you object to your child being filled with ideas in the classroom, to which you are diametrically opposed.

HUMAN SEXUALITY COURSE

The Minister for Education has informed S.T.O.P. that the Australian Science and Education Project (A.S.E.P.) Unit entitled "Males & Females" will not be allowed in Queensland Schools.

No one has the right to usurp the parents' position in the field of sexual and moral training. Dr. Eickhoff, experienced child Psychiatrist, says that parents should have the privilege of enlightening their own children, and that it is the parent, and not the child, that should be instructed in how to achieve this properly.

It is not more sex education that children these days need, but rather stricter instruction in how to conduct themselves modestly and without defilement. The education of the intellect is higher than ever, but the standard of behaviour is lower. The great need now is for education of the human heart - to learn to care enough about others not to prey on each other and spoil one another's lives.

RELIGIOUS INSTRUCTION

On the basis of the Australian Constitution and our Law Court Judgments, the Christian religion is recognized to be part and parcel of the law of this country. Therefore S.T.O.P. submitted a recommendation to the Committee of Enquiry into Religious Education in Queensland State Schools to the effect that education of the future citizens of Australia should include instruction in the Christian faith, as their national religion, if they are to develop an appreciation of our Christian ethics and play their part intelligently in either formulating, enforcing or interpreting the laws of our land according to Scriptural standards. It is the birthright of our Australian children to be taught the fundamentals of the faith of Jesus Christ.
